

The Monroe County Industrial Development Corporation (MCIDC) fosters economic growth and opportunity by providing access to capital, including microlending, to support small businesses, entrepreneurs, established employers, and not-for-profit organizations. Through strategic investments in workforce development and business expansion, MCIDC promotes job creation, retention, and the long-term prosperity of Monroe County and the Greater Rochester region.

Amended and Adopted: March 19, 2025